[redacted] Talked with Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and alerted him to the fact that the Katzenbach report to the President would probably be released in the very near future. Michaels asked me about the status of our supplemental letter and I informed him that this was being held in the Senate Committee on instructions from Senator Russell until his return from the Easter recess. Michaels said he had thought this was the case but wanted to check. ✓

[redacted] Advised Russ Blandford, House Armed Services Committee staff, that the Katzenbach report to the President was expected to be released in the very near future. Blandford thanked me for this information.

[redacted] In connection with the interest of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff in the [redacted] I conferred with the DD/P who said that arrangements were being made for [redacted] to brief the AEC USIB member on the case and that while there was very little information available at this time, there was no objection to having someone brief the Joint Committee staff on information developed to date.
